

Time	Event
9.00 – 9.20	Introduction to event: Dr. Lara Perry, Associate Dean (Education &amp; Student Exp), School of Humanities and Social Science
09.30 - 10:30	Alumni Panels: Former Brighton students share their experiences of employability whilst studying and after graduation. The two separate panels will run concurrently from 9:30am.  Panel 1 (Social Science): hosted by Dr. Jess Darby, Lecturer in Forensic Psychology Panel 2 (Humanities): hosted by Dr. Rebecca Searle, Principal Lecturer
11:30 – 12:00	Employer Talk 1: Ellie Bray, Assistant Psychologist, Sussex Partnership NHS Foundation Trust Ellie graduated in Psychology at the University of Roehampton in 2019. She is going to share what it is like to go from graduation to trying to get on to a clinical training route.
12:30 - 13:00	Employer Talk 2: Mike Terry, Circles Coordinator - Surrey/Sussex Mike will be talking about the work of Circles UK, a charity funded by the Ministry of Justice with potential opportunities for students and graduates. Circles seeks to support greater public protection by working towards a substantial reduction in sexual offending by providing a range of services to local Circle Providers and to increase awareness and understanding of community approaches to public protection.
13:30 – 14:00	Employer Talk 3: Adam Waters, Director, BFBS Academy and Creative “I’ll speak about how people can build creative careers for themselves. If you have no idea what you want to be when you grow up, wish there was a plan you could follow, or worry you can never work in a creative role, then this talk is for you. And it’s delivered by someone who has felt all three of those things.”
14:30 – 15:00	Employer Talk 4: Poonam Mistry, Adviser for the Local Government Association, NGDP Poonam will be talking about the application process for the NGDP local government programme, an overview of the programme and why you should consider a career in local government. Join this session to find out more about the NGDP.
15:30 – 16:00	Employer Talk 5: Sophia Day, Research Executive, Aviatrix Market Research Consultancy “I am a graduate of the Music Marketing and Communications BA (Hons) from the University for the Creative Arts, and the Women's Studies MA from the University of York. I now work at Aviatrix in a graduate role as a Research Executive. I will be speaking about my undergraduate and postgraduate academic studies, my work experience during my studies, my experience being a graduate during the Covid-19 pandemic and how I got into the market research industry. “
	Event ends at 16:00.