

Annual Geography Conference

Thursday 27th June, 2019

'The benefits of belonging'

Annual face-to-face conference where the geography community comes together to: celebrate geography teaching in secondary schools and academies; share good practice and explore creative responses to challenges both now and in the future.

Time	Room	Session
Welcome and Keynote
8:20 - 8:55	4Q56	Arrival, Registration and Refreshments (networking, introductions)
9:00-9:05	Lecture theatre	Welcome - Future Geography CPD Michelle Graffagnino UWE, Bristol PGCE Geography Tutor. Harry West UWE, Garry Atterton GA Bristol Branch President.
9.05–30		Key Note address – Mark Jones
Updating Subject Knowledge
09:35 10:15		Subject knowledge update Changing Urban Environments, Dr Andrew Tallon UWE, Geography Lead and Senior Lecturer in Urban Policy
10:15 10:30		Refreshments
10:35 11:15		Subject knowledge update Geopolitics and Human Rights, Dr Aida Abzhaparova UWE, Associate Head of Department & Senior Lecturer in International Relations.
11:20 - 12:00		Subject knowledge update UK Flood Risk & Hazards, Dr Nevel Quinn UWE, Associate Professor in Hydrology
12:00 - 12:50		Lunch – please bring your own to enable this event to be free. Alternatively, cafes and shops are available on site at Frenchay campus.
Subject-specific CPD opportunities: consuming and contributing
12:50 - 1:50		NEA – mastering NEA Data collection and GIS Harry West UWE, Lecturer in GIS
1:50-2:00		Refreshments
2:00 2:40		Teach Meet - the conference will end with a TeachMeet with contributions by experienced teachers, NQTs and PGCE students
2:40-3:10		Final comments and ways forward - The state of geography in schools: priorities, challenges and opportunities. Future CPD for geographers