

Student
Support &
Advice

To the Student

Working & Your Student Visa

If you have a Student Visa, you can usually work 20 hours a week in term-time. The hours will be on your share code.

A week is any 7 day period starting on a Monday.

Outside term-time you can work full-time.

To check the University's term dates,
please scan the QR code

UNIVERSITY OF LINCOLN

Find us in the Student Support Centre

To the Employer

Right to Work Checks

When carrying out a Right to Work check for a Student Visa holder who is enrolled on a degree course, they are usually allowed to work 20 hours a week in term-time under their Student Visa conditions. The hours will be on their share code.

To check the University's term dates,
please scan the QR code

Please scan the QR code for the Home Office “Employers’ guide to right to work checks” published 18 October 2023

Find us in the Student Support Centre or email:

 studentsupport@lincoln.ac.uk

Find more information on our website:

 studentservices.lincoln.ac.uk

Student Support Centre

University of Lincoln.
Brayford Pool, Lincoln.
Lincolnshire. LN6 7TS

Student
Support & Advice

