

University of Lincoln School of Psychology Psychology Teachers' Conference 2022

Thursday 23rd June, 9.30am – 3.45pm

| | |
|--|--|
| Sanity and insanity, truth and lies | Prof. Phil Banyard - Emeritus Professor of Psychology, Nottingham Trent University |
| Round table What should a 21st Century Pre - degree curriculum look like? | Dr Gayle Brewer - Senior Lecturer at the University of Liverpool Rosie McGinley - AQA s Head of Curriculum (Psychology) Michelle Satchwell - Head of Psychology/Sociology/Health and Social Care Shakila Roy - Head of Psychology Dr Kirsten McKenzie - Biological Psychology Dr Garry Wilson - Evolutionary, Cognitive Psychology and History Dr Valentina Sclafani - Developmental Psychology Dr Pau Goddard – University Admission Dr Patrick Hylton – Social, Critical and Cultural Psychology |

| | |
|---|--|
| Parallel tracks between school and families: An experience in a primary school | Lucia Bombieri - Ministry of Public Education |
| Round Table What should a 21st Century pre-degree curriculum look like? (Redux) | Conference Delegates discussion |
| Film Therapy | Dr Jenny Hamilton - Jenny is a Senior Lecturer in Counselling/Psychological Therapies at the University of Lincoln |
| When conforming, reality does not always match perception | Dr Nathan Heflick - Nathan is a Senior Lecturer specialising in Social Psychology |
| Motivation for sport and physical activity: The role of autonomy supportive coaching | Dr Stephen Earl - Stephen is a Lecturer in Psychology at the University of Lincoln, specialising in theories around motivation and emotional well-being |

Book your free place at: <https://lncn.ac/c2m>

