

Lisa Dwan: A Beckett Actor

The Billie Whitelaw Lecture

2 November 2016 | 6pm

Minghella Building, Whiteknights Campus, University of Reading

Tickets: £5/£2 (concessions)

Please go to: store.rdg.ac/LisaDwan

Acclaimed Beckett actor Lisa Dwan, who has performed in Beckett's plays across the globe, will speak about her mentor Billie Whitelaw and performing Beckett.

Lisa met Billie when she was preparing for a production of Beckett's challenging play Not I and Billie passed her notes from Beckett on to Lisa. We are delighted to welcome Lisa Dwan back to Reading following her virtuoso performance of a selection of Beckett's prose for performance entitled No's Knife at London's Old Vic Theatre.

The lecture will be followed by a wine reception and the launch of the Billie Whitelaw Exhibition, which will for the first time show items from Billie Whitelaw's Beckett Theatrical Collection, acquired by the Beckett International Foundation in 2015.

For further information, contact:
beckettfoundation@reading.ac.uk

