

Fifty
WAYS
TO USE a

palette KNIFE

from the folks that brought you

"The problem is all inside your head," it said to me,
"There's a way to dampen your ennui,
I'd like to help you, you bet your life,
There must be fifty ways to use a palette knife"

It said, "I may be but a simple device,
And please don't misconstrue my advice,
Idleness will be all but rife,
Since there's surely fifty ways to use a palette knife"
Fifty ways to use a palette knife

You just pick the food from your teeth, Keith
Open a bottle top, Scott
Scrape the gum off the street, Pete
You just listen to me
Pop the bubble wrap, Jack
You can fillet the fish, Trish
Just stir the tea, Lee
And get yourself three

Ooh, pick the food from your teeth, Keith
Open a bottle top, Scott
Scrape the gum off the street, Pete
Just take it from me
Pop the bubble wrap, Jack
You can fillet the fish, Trish
Stir the tea, Lee
You gotta get yourself three

It said, "I can tell you ain't feelin' so fine,
I wish there was something I could do to help fill your time,"
I said, "I appreciate that and would you please explain in rhyme,
About the fifty ways"

It said, "Now good ideas, they don't come quick,
In the meantime this should do the trick,
There ain't half as much you can do with a brick,
And slick, there's probably more than fifty"
Probably more than fifty

You just pick the food from your teeth, Keith,
Open a bottle top, Scott
Scrape the gum off the street, Pete
Just take it from me
Oh, you can pop the bubble wrap, Jack
Fillet the fish, Trish
Stir the tea, Lee
And get yourself three
