

LIFE IS FULL OF DRAMA

Drama

Drama is a subject that equips our pupils with the essential skills needed to succeed in an ever changing world. Drama promotes team oriented skills that develop an individual's confidence and personal determination. It is also a subject that promotes self-expression through a creative domain. Pupils in this subject learn how to communicate their thoughts, ideas and feelings as well as respect the ideas of others.

Edinburgh Napier University -
Acting and English

Royal Conservatoire of Scotland -
Acting

Edinburgh College - Musical
Theatre

Queen Margaret University -
Theatre and Film

Royal Conservatoire of Scotland -
Production Technology and Management

Queen Margaret University -
Drama

